The first policy issued

Texas was admitted into the Union the same year New York Life was founded—1845. The first New York Life policy sold in Texas was to Jacob L. Briggs, a 32-year-old Galveston merchant. He insured his life for $3,000 under policy no. 597, issued July 16, 1846. His beneficiary was his wife, Maria M. Briggs.

Please refer to back page regarding definition of terms.

The first death benefit paid

The first death claim paid on a policy issued in Texas was on the life of L. F. Chapman, a merchant from Victoria. He had insured his life in October 1852 under policy no. 8,983. He died of typhoid fever on January 31, 1859, while in Jackson, Mississippi. The death benefit of $4,000 was paid to his estate.
